Rochester Public Library's new mobile library holds rolling carts of library materials, programming supplies, and portable technology so our staff can take the library experience on the road.

RPL GO! offers convenient library access to hard-to-reach areas in the City of Rochester. Its home base is the Lyell Branch Library, which serves as RPL's first hybrid branch, combining traditional onsite and mobile library services.

RPL GO! supports the Rochester Public Library's mission to engage the community in life-long learning through equal access to information, technology, and expert staff.

- Browse and borrow library materials for all ages
- Get reading recommendations, reference support, and technology assistance from library staff
